Ocean Waters Helps Law Enforcement “Rest Easy” During Black College Reunion

April 2, 2007, DAYTONA BEACH -- Ocean Waters Family of hotels and resorts donated more than 100 rooms to visiting law enforcement officers brought in to help during Daytona Beach’s annual Black College Reunion.

During the event, officers from different department all over the state are called in to help with security on A1A.

“Our property, The Plaza Resort, is located right in the heart of activity of BCR on A1A. We have always been a big part of the Event. We feel it is our responsibility to take care of the men and women who are taking care of residents and visitors during BCR,” said Stephen Nalley, Sr. Vice President of Operations at Ocean Waters.

The different officers come from the Florida Highway Patrol, Florida Fish and Wildlife, Volusia County Sheriffs Office, and various local and state agencies. The officers often work extended shifts, and only sleep for a few hours at a time.

“We wanted to make sure these officers had a nice, quiet place to stay for the few hours of down time they had during the event,” said Nalley.
